A WORD FROM THE DEAN

for Cumberland is “...where good people become exceptional lawyers.” That, in a nutshell, is our mission. To make that concept a reality, we have accumulated, I believe, the finest faculty, staff and student in the country. Everyone works hard and for the same goal, providing quality legal education to tomorrow’s leaders.

In The Cumberland Lawyer we try to focus on a few of the truly outstanding alumni who practice and serve all across this great country of ours. Their stories are interesting, but their influence in their communities, and impact on the legal system are remarkable. I invite you to read your alumni magazine regularly and let us know about others we might feature.

This report is more personal. It is about what you and hundreds of your fellow alumni have given and committed to this law school to make it possible to train “exceptional lawyers.” Note the new funds that have been created by your colleagues; the varieties of planned gifts which have become realities this year; and the consistent support our alumni have provided that has moved the endowment of the law school to almost $20 million.

One of the most remarkable events of the year was the funding of Brewer Plaza, which is featured on page 6. Conceived and executed by the Law School Advisory Board, this project raised over $650,000 in gifts and pledges in less than six months. That kind of drive and commitment deserves recognition. Our hats are off to Scott Powell '78, Bob MacKenzie '84 and Mark White '74 for inviting the legal and corporate community as well as alumni and friends to participate in this tribute to Gov. and Mrs. Brewer.

This report covers the period from June 1, 2007 through June 30, 2008. Many important gifts have come to the law school since July 1, 2008 and these will be reported next Fall.

Our faculty have a vital role in achieving our mission. Their vitality in the classroom and diligence in scholarly research are recognized with teaching and research awards. The Harvey Jackson Award for Excellence in Teaching paid tribute to Beth Burch and Brannon Denning at the Alumni Weekend Gala in April. At the same event, Bill Ross, Beth Burch and Marcia McCormack received the Lightfoot, Franklin & White Faculty Scholarship Award. Appreciation for the work of our faculty reach far beyond the Georgian Colonial halls of Samford University. This past year our faculty spoke and led conferences in Europe, Africa, Asia and South America in addition to a variety of engagements throughout the country. Two faculty were on leave for half a year while serving as Fulbright Scholars in China and the Ukraine. Sixteen Faculty members received summer research grants which enabled them to write articles and generate new courses which benefit the reputation of Cumberland in the larger academic community.

Finally, the students excelled in leadership and commitment to service. Eddie Koen served as the President of the National Black Law Student Association and three other Cumberland students were on the Board. Sigfredo Rubio was recognized by the Alabama State Bar for his community service and received the Alabama State Bar Student Pro Bono Award. Cumberland’s Community Service Organization was a finalist for Hands on Birmingham’s Organization of the Year. As a finalist, this organization is a team that has demonstrated a strong commitment to service in the community throughout the year. During the 2007-2008 academic year, Cumberland’s Community Service Organization served in many different projects including: Public Interest Day as part of Orientation, Habitat for Humanity, MLK project, Puppy Walk, Spring Festival, Wills for Heroes, Public Interest Career Fair, and other projects as well. Thirty-six students spent their summer working in non-profit, governmental and judicial position as a part of the Public Interest Stipend program. Funding from alumni made the stipends possible.

The 2007-2008 Cumberland trial and moot court teams were the most successful in the school’s history. From the regional to the national level, Cumberland made its mark in the competition arena. The trial team took first place at the American Association of Justice (AAJ) 2008 Student Trial Advocacy Competition (STAC) which was held April 3-6 in West Palm Beach, Fla. Led by coach Michael V. Rasmussen, the championship team beat out over 200 participating teams to garner the national title. Cumberland trial teams also won on the regional level of the AAJ taking both First and Second place. The Criminal Justice Trial Advocacy Competition also named the Cumberland team First Place Winner and awarded a Cumberland student Best Individual Cross Examination. At the Lone Star Classic Mock Trial Competition, the Cumberland team won First Place and Overall Best Advocate. The American Bar Association’s (ABA) National Arbitration Competition named Cumberland Regional Finalist and the ABA National Client Counseling Competition named Cumberland Regional Winner.

It was a very good year. I am proud of what we have accomplished together and look forward to reporting our successes again next Fall.

—John L. Carroll

BREWER PLAZA DEDICATED

IN OCTOBER 2007, the Advisory Board approved and undertook the task of raising funds to name the plaza in front of Robinson Hall for Gov. and Mrs. Albert P. Brewer. The effort raised over $650,000 in gifts and pledges to cover the cost of additions to the plaza with the excess funds being added to the corpus of the Albert P. and Martha F. Brewer Scholarship in Law.

Advisory Board Chairman Scott Powell '78, Bob MacKenzie '84 and J. Mark White '74 served as the steering group for The Committee to Honor Gov. & Mrs. Brewer. The project concluded with a dedication of the Martha F. and Albert P. Brewer Plaza during the April 4, 2008 meeting of the Advisory Board. Lt. Governor James Folsom and

DAVIS CHAIR FILLED

In 2000, Elizabeth (Betty) Davis Eshelman '64 created a charitable remainder unitrust which provided income for her life and made possible the establishment of the Harwell G. Davis Chair in Constitutional Law. The Chair became a reality after the death of Ms. Eshelman in April 2007.

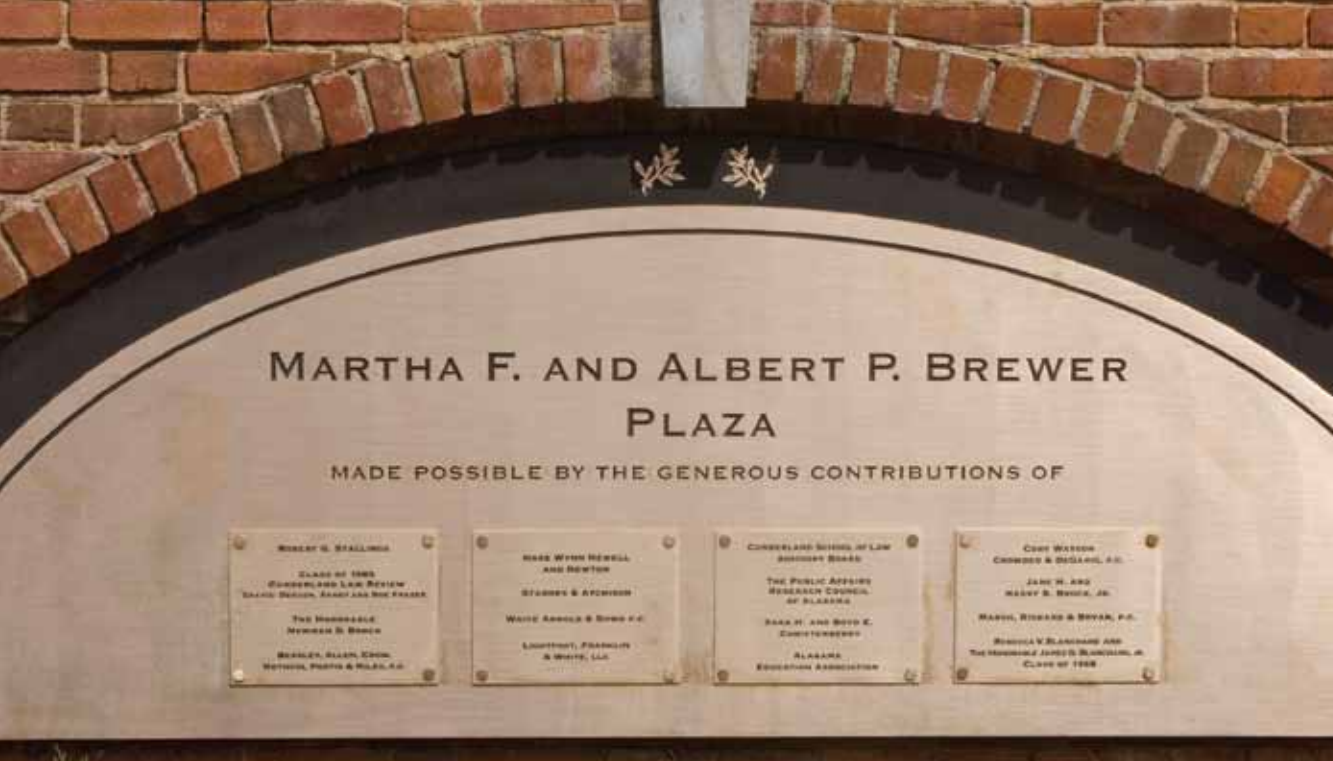

On October 10, 2008, Prof. David M. Smolin became the Harwell G. Davis Professor of Constitutional Law. Prof. Smolin was born in New York City, grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio, and graduated from New College of the University of South Florida in 1980 with a degree in Applied Psychology. His thesis was The Stolen Child: A Case Study of an Emotionally-Troubled Child. Graduating first in his class at the University of Cincinnati Law School, he was a member of the Order of the Coif, co-winner of the Norbert Heinsheimer Prize in Jurisprudence, a Fellow for the Urban Morgan Institute for Human Rights, on the editorial staff of the Human Rights Quarterly, and a member of the University of Cincinnati Law Review. Upon graduation, Smolin clerked for The Honorable George Edwards, Senior Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

Joining the faculty of the Cumberland School of Law of Samford University in 1987, he was promoted to full professor in 1993. His teaching areas include: Constitutional Law, International Human Rights, Family & Juvenile Law, Wills & Trusts, Intellectual Property, Bioethics, Law & Religion, and Criminal Law. He serves as Director of the Center for Biotechnology, Law and Ethics.

Professor Smolin has been the primary author/co-author of amicus curiae briefs in significant Supreme Court cases. He has submitted written and/or oral testimony before two Congressional committees, and legislative committees in five states, on the constitutional implications of proposed legislation.

David Smolin

Samford President Andrew Westmoreland participated in the dedication ceremony. Over 120 individuals, law firms, corporations and organizations contributed to the project.

Dean John Carroll noted "this recognition of one of the great leaders of our state and the statesman of the legal profession is long overdue. We are honored to have this permanent reminder of the contributions Gov. and Mrs. Brewer have made to our state, the legal community and to this law school."

SCHOLARSHIP NEWS

WILLIAM J. PEELER ADVANCED ADVOCACY AWARD INITIATED

Jeana P. Hosch '86 initiated an endowed fund in the law school in honor and memory of her father, William J. Peeler '52 of Waverly, Tennessee. A strong advocate of the legal system and our system of justice, William Peeler spanned Cumberland's history and tradition in Lebanon and Birmingham. The fund, which has received gifts from family and friends, recognizes the student showing outstanding ability and interest in trial advocacy as evidenced by performance in the Advanced Advocacy course or other trial advocacy course at Cumberland.

MCCALLUM, METHVIN AND TERRILL, P.C. SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Phillip McCallum '87, Robert Methvin '94 and the law firm of McCallum, Methvin and Terrell, P.C. have created the first Enabling Fund at the law school. An Enabling Fund is a five year commitment of $5,000 per year which enables the law school to provide program, services or financial assistance to students that would not otherwise be available. This fund provides assistance to students with demonstrated financial need.

For more information on establishing an Enabling Fund, contact Dean Carroll or Vice Dean Lewis.

DAVID MATTHEW MCLAIN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP ESTABLISHED

Family and friends have established a memorial scholarship in memory of Matthew David McLain, a first year student tragically killed in April 2008. A native of Huntsville, Matt graduated from Rhodes College with a major in English. His winning personality, creative nature and commitment to his fellow law students were evident in his brief tenure at the law school. The scholarship will be awarded to a rising second year student, with demonstrated financial needs and commitment to others.

CRITTENDEN WOMEN IN LAW SCHOLARSHIP GROWS

Members of The Crittenden Firm presented Judith Crittenden '70 with an unusual birthday present this year. They made contributions to the scholarship established in her name. The scholarship provides financial assistance to an outstanding second or third year female law student who is not receiving any other scholarship assistance. Demonstrated financial need may be considered in the decision.

LT. WAYNE MORSE USMC BOOK SCHOLARSHIP CREATED

Wayne Morse '76 has established an endowed scholarship in honor of his father, Lt. Wayne Morse, USMC. The scholarship assists students at Cumberland who have served on active duty with the military or are currently active in a reserve or national guard unit. In addition to the initial endowment, Mr. Morse has included the book scholarship fund in his estate plan.

JUDGE T. VIRGIL PITTMAN SCHOLARSHIP ESTABLISHED

Judge T. Virgil Pittman has established an endowed scholarship at the law school to assist second or third year students with demonstrated financial need. Additionally, Judge Pittman stipulated "the recipient shall have a deep desire to be a lawyer as demonstrated by his/her self-help approach to law school."

Judge Pittman serves as Senior United States District Judge. He is a former Trustee of Samford University and parent of a Cumberland alumnus, Lee Pittman '76 of Birmingham.

LIGHTFOOT, FRANKLIN & WHITE SCHOLARSHIP RENEWED

Jere F. White '80 has renewed the scholarship created in the firm's name. Originally established in 2002, in 2006 the firm added to the corpus of the fund and requested it be converted to an award recognizing faculty excellence in legal scholarship and writing. That fund provides cash awards to the junior and senior members of the faculty who have made the most significant contribution to legal research and scholarship through published books and articles.

Convinced that financial assistance to high achieving students was in the best interest of Cumberland, Mr. White renewed his pledge to the The Lightfoot, Franklin & White Scholarship in Law as a way to retain outstanding second and third year students. For financial reasons, some exceptional students find it necessary to transfer to another law school. Retention scholarships such as this make it possible for Cumberland to recognize the academic achievements of our students in a tangible way. Dean Carroll notes "without such assistance, Cumberland could lose some of her most talented future lawyers."

ESTATE GIFTS ARE IMPORTANT

THREE PLANNED GIFTS MATURED

fulfilling the lifetime dreams and intentions of the donors. In 1979 Whelan W. and Rosalie T. Palmer created a Charitable Remainder Unitrust which was to eventually fund a Professorship in Tax at the law school. The Trust provided income to the couple for both of their lives, then became the corpus for the Whelan W. and Rosalie T. Palmer Professorship. Prof. Joe Blackburn was named the Palmer Professor of Tax.

Frederick Schlichter established a scholarship in the law school which would be funded with the remainder of a trust he established at the university many years ago. The Frederick C. Schlichter Scholarship in Law now benefits students who have demonstrated financial need. The endowed scholarship will help students for generations to come.

As mentioned elsewhere in this report, Betty Eshelman '64 made provisions in her estate plan for a Chair in Constitutional Law to be established in her father's honor at her death. The chair is now a reality and the law school and her students will always be indebted to her for the Harwell G. Davis Chair in Constitutional Law.

Tom Jones '66 of Huntsville, Alabama has developed an estate plan which will provide for his wife in the event of his death and then funds the Thomas L. and Shirley D. Jones Memorial Scholarship for Cumberland students who have served in the military or are active members of Reserve or National Guard components of the Armed Forces of the United States while in law school.

Albert L. Shumaker '65 of Centre, Alabama has created the Albert Leo and Miariam Anne Williamson Shumaker Charitable Remainder Unitrust which will fund the Albert L. Shumaker Scholarship. When funded, the scholarship may be used by the Dean of the Cumberland to grant financial assistance to any worthy student he/she may choose to assist.

There are many ways you can create plans which will benefit you and your spouse for your lives and then benefit Cumberland, her faculty and students in perpetuity. If you are interested in knowing more, contact Vice Dean Lewis or Stan Davis '83 in the Office of Gift Planning.
